Missouri Board of Probation and Parole Announces Management Appointment

Missouri Board of Probation and Parole (P&P) Chair Steve Long today announced the appointment of Michelle Peters as the District Administrator at P&P District 4R in Kansas City.

Ms. Peters began her career with the Department in 1991 and held the position of Probation and Parole Officer. She was promoted to a Unit Supervisor in 2000. Peters has served on several statewide and regional committees aimed at improving the efficiency and overall operations of this agency, including the time study, electronic monitoring, Interstate Compact, automated minimum supervision and regional policy committees dedicated to improving performance. She has served on an audit team and has worked in conjunction with other state agencies as a member of an implementation team tasked with establishing and assisting in efficient offender re-entry in the community. Peters received her Bachelor of Science degree from Western Illinois University.
